Where can I use my library card?

Thirty seven libraries that are members of the Morris Automated Information Network (MAIN) [1] as well as those libraries in . . . Bernards Township Library is a member of MUF, a consortium of nine area libraries sharing holdings of over 800,000 books, 50,000 media items, 2,200 magazines & newspapers, and much more. Your card from a MUF Library may be used in all nine libraries. If your own library does not have a book you need: Call or visit any MUF Library. Remember to bring your own up-to-date library card! Ask your librarian to locate a book for you. Pick it up or have it delivered to your own home library. Some restrictions do apply, so ask about loan periods, reserves, fees and delivery schedules. *Each library has a specialty focus within their collection.
